

Did you know. . .

- Cervical cancer is caused by a very common sexually transmitted virus called HPV.
- Cervical cancer can be prevented or cured!
- Cervical cancer screening is the key to reducing your risk of getting cervical cancer.

Learn more about cervical cancer and how you can reduce your risk of getting it.

visit the GCCP Initiative Website

www.GhanaCCPrevention.org

Don't Let Cervical Cancer Affect You!