

Cervical Cancer Is Preventable!

Your health is your greatest wealth.

Reduce your risk for cervical cancer by getting a cervical cancer screening.

All women should get a cervical cancer screening every three years starting at age 25.

For more information about cervical cancer prevention visit:
www.GhanaCCPrevention.org